 Before taking her journey home to heaven and while thinking about life and watching the world take a downward spiral spiritually, Evelyn wanted an up-close personal and intimate relationship with the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. In her quest to know Him better, she began an in-depth look at how to worship and praise God. What she discovered amazed her. Being no expert in scriptures yet having learned that if you take some time to know Him, He will give you more insight into who He is. He is a great God who is full of mercy and truth. This study has caused her to see the Lord in a different light with a closer view of who He is. This work started from a simple desire to know God better. Evelyn stated, I did not want to leave this world without knowing the God of Heaven in a more intimate way.

The Lord Is Our Light invites you to explore God's hope and presence through a study of the scripture readings for Advent and Christmas. Author Elaine Crawford calls us to explore our hope for new beginnings, praising God as we eagerly await the birth of Christ in our lives. Recalling the fulfillment of God's promises at Christmas, she invites us to imagine the future culmination of our hope in Christ's death, resurrection, and second coming. Dawson's reflections challenge readers to cultivate faithful lives here and now, in active expectation for the coming of the Christ Child. Based upon the Revised Common Lectionary scriptures for year B of the church year, a three-year cycle of Bible readings. Sage Hayes affectionately known as Sister Hey loved her job at Newfound Baptist Church in Sandersville. Newfound Missionary Baptist was the largest church in the area and was well known throughout the community for having good preaching, good singing, and delicious, southern style food. It seems as though everyone in the community knew each other or a family member. Sage was the kind of woman that loved attention and sought it in different ways. She worked with some of the most creative and innovative people at Newfound. Sage loved being a support system for the staff at Newfound, especially Daniel Morgan. Daniel was the creative mind behind the Yahweh Food Bank which fed more than 200 families every month with nutritious meals as well as The Lion's Den which provided health and dental screening to poverty stricken families. Tall, muscular, and handsome Daniel was a true Christian man who sought the Lord in every aspect of his life. Sage loved Daniel and would go to any length to be with him even if it meant going against her Christian principles. She desperately wanted to be Mrs. Daniel Morgan. Armed with help from her sister, Delphina, Sage came up with a plan to hook Daniel. However, Daniel was not going to play by Sage's rules. He was facing his own challenges and was not going to let Sage get the upper hand. So, when Sage's initial plan failed, she decided to concoct a more devious plan. Sage allowed her Christian values to be compromised by participating in a momentary indiscretion. Will she be able to find forgiveness, restoration and rejuvenation?

Timeless is the war for our faith and anchor in Christ to be dislodged. It can happen ever so subtly, even when we don't realize it. Distractions, situations, relationships, and even good things can cause us to lose our center, or in other words, that place that gives us balance. When people lose their balance, they usually fall. It happens even if we don't want it to, and even if we doubt it can. There is a lesson of the science of faith that is at work within the core of every soul. We must continually be "Centered on Majesty" by diligently pursuing Him and living a life that recognizes that Jesus Christ is our source and our stability. "In today's society, it is easy to stay focused on our pain, our victimization, and our troubles. In Centered on Majesty, Susan League lifts our eyes above self to the awesome God who holds our heart in His hands. Take this daily devotional journey with Susan as she leads you through the wanderings of your soul to the place where tears are wiped away and hope is birthed. Her daily, relatable stories coupled with reflection on Scripture will set you on a Christ-focused path for the day. Let your spirit soar with Centered on Majesty." ?The glory of God is a silver thread which must run through all our actions.? That's how Puritan pastor Thomas Watson described the importance of the glory of God for the Christian life. God's greatest concern is His glory?the Bible is clear about that. He will not give it to anyone else, and failure to glorify Him certainly warrants eternal judgement. But God's glory is more than a mandate for His creation. He has intertwined it with our identity so we are unable to find meaningful purpose apart from displaying His glory in every part of life. Many Christians today are bombarded with philosophies, programs, and self-help books promising them a meaningful and purposeful life. But instead of helping them achieve their goal, they distract from the true source of meaning and purpose. How Do We Glorify God provides an accessible, clear, and practical guide to help Christians find meaningful purpose in a world of distractions. Through Puritan thought and Biblical study, faithfulness to Christ and His gospel is inspired, pressing questions about sin and suffering are covered, hope in the promises of God is instilled, and eternal satisfaction is guaranteed.

Worship: Time in the Word Christian Faith Publishing, Inc.

The author has learned, from experience, how God moves in the hearts, minds, and lives of people who spend time with him in praise, worship, and studying the Word. When asked the question, "What do you want people to learn from your years of experience in living for God?" the author responded that she would like to "download" and "regurgitate" her life experiences regarding praise, worship, and the study of the Word into the hearts and lives of young people so that they will come to know the voice of the Lord, learn to listen to him, and follow his leading. You cannot go wrong if you follow where God wants you to go and what he wants you to do. We should ask God to, "Order my steps in thy word" (Psa. 119:133). "The weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God for the pulling down of strongholds" (2 Cor. 10:4). Praise, Worship, and the Word opens you up to receive what God has to say to you, show you, and how he wants to lead you. You cannot follow God if you don't listen to him. When Alice asked the question, "Would you tell me, please which way I ought to go from here?" The answer was "If you don't know where you are going, any road will take you there" (Lewis Carroll's Alice's Adventures in Wonderland). Listen to the voice of God, and you cannot go wrong.

A Miracle of Life WestBow Press

A Miracle of Life is a testimony about a mother's unconditional love for her child; when giving birth, she would not take the opinion of one doctor telling her, "We have done all we can do. You can take your baby home with meds to keep her comfortable until she passes." She requested the opinion of another doctor who specialized in her daughter's condition: congenital heart defect. The hospital would become a home away from home for mother and child because Ty was born with not one but all four defects. Her first surgery would take place with her being three days old, and that was just the start of many more to come. Every doctor appointed after that surgery appeared to reveal a new condition. Ty was going to need feeding tubes for the rest of her life; she couldn't hear, talk, see, or walk on her own. Mom thought at one point, she would lose her mind and she turns to drinking to relieve from her trials. That was only a temporary fix, the problems were still there the next day. She didn't think she could take any more bad news, but with much prayer, family support, and support from her church family, her daughter beat all odds that were stacked up against her, thus being Mom's miracle.
